IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Medical conditions which are not stable for 180 days prior to your arrival to Canada will not be covered under this policy.
- A medical condition is stable if, during the period of time specified, you:
  - 1. Have not received new medical treatment;
  - 2. Have not been prescribed a new prescription medication;
  - 3. Have not had a change in medical treatment;
  - 4. Have not had an alteration in a prescribed medication;
  - 5. Have not experienced a deterioration in your condition;
  - 6. Have not experienced new, more frequent or more severe symptoms;
  - Have not had or required medical consultation to investigate symptoms that remain undiagnosed;
  - 8. Have not required in-hospital care or a referral to a specialist, including initial follow-up visits, tests or investigations related to the medical condition and pending results; and/or
  - Do not anticipate further medical treatment after departure from your country of origin.

- If there is a change in your health after the application date and prior to the effective date, GMS must be notified and the application updated. A change in your health may affect your eligibility for coverage. Changes to your health that do not affect eligibility will still constitute a change in stability and may limit your available coverage.
- If you experience a medical emergency, you must notify the GMS assistance firm prior to treatment, where possible, and no later than 24 hours after receiving medical treatment or being admitted to hospital. Your policy may limit benefits should you not contact the assistance firm.
- In the event of a medical emergency you must call GMS Assistance:

Toll-free (within Canada and the USA): 1.800.459.6604 Collect (from all other locations): 905-762-5196

- In the event of a claim or refund request documentation confirming travel dates will be required.
- Where this policy is issued to satisfy entry to Canada, GMS reserves the right to notify Citizenship and Immigration Canada if the policy is cancelled.
